FROM

THE SECRETARY TO THE HON'BLE THE RESIDENT IN MYSORE.

To

The Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,
Law Department, Bangalore.

Dated Bangalore, the 7th June 1940.

Detention of accused persons beyond the statutory period of two months.

SIR,

The Government of Bombay write that as the detention of a person for more than two months is illegal, except with the special sanction of the Provincial Government, all Magistrates in the Bombay Presidency have been ordered to release prisoners on the expiry of the statutory period of two months, unless by that time the Provincial Government has given the necessary sanction for further detention under section 10(3) of the Indian Extradition Act. It will be realised that in cases in which such sanction is required, application must be made in sufficient time to enable the Government of Bombay to issue the necessary orders so as to reach the Magistrate concerned before the expiry of two months from the date of detention.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

for SECRETARY TO THE RESIDENT.
